

Beyond Governance: Utilizing Your Volunteer Board as a Resource

Thursday, May 20, 2010
10:00 am – 3:00 pm
Binghamton, NY

Your Library has a resource that is seldom utilized to its capacity. Non-profit Boards come in all different shapes and sizes, but for this session, we assume that they are all volunteers (Some trustees are elected.) It is appropriate and necessary for a Library executive to consider the strengths and weaknesses of his or her volunteers in order to improve the Library. Learn some techniques for recruiting a “working” board.

Who should attend?

- Library Directors
- Library Trustees
- Library System Directors
- Administrators
- Librarians

About the Presenter:

Ronald L. Barrows is the Lead Consultant for, and owner of, The Barrows Group. The Group, headquartered in Cortland, NY, is a consulting firm specializing in Development, Volunteer Training, Capital Campaigns, Feasibility Studies, Referendums and Fundraising Strategies. With over 24 years of development experience, Mr. Barrows has conducted workshops nationally for NYLA, library systems and other non-profit organizations. He has consulted directly with New York libraries on various aspects of fundraising and campaign management. He now works almost exclusively with libraries and has provided these services for nearly 12 years and has been a business member of NYLA for 6 years.
