Proposal for NYLA Professional Development Programs

This form can be used to submit program proposals for:

NYLA Institutes
These half-day and full-day programs are scheduled around the state in various locations throughout the year. They provide professional development opportunities to members of the library community on a wide variety of topics. All programs must be reviewed and approved by the NYLA Continuing Education Committee.

NYLA Pre-Conference Continuing Education Programs
These half-day and full-day programs are scheduled for the Wednesday directly preceding the start of the NYLA Annual Conference. Programs are sponsored by three or four of NYLA’s seven sections on a rotating basis. All programs must be reviewed and approved by the NYLA Continuing Education Committee.

NYLA Conference Programs
These programs are typically one hour and fifteen minutes in length, and are sponsored by any of NYLA’s sections, roundtables, committees, or affiliate groups. All programs must be reviewed and approved by the NYLA Conference Program & Advisory Committees.

NYLA Webinars
These programs are given as a web-based informational session, 1 hour in length. They provide professional development opportunities to members via the internet. All programs must be reviewed and approved by the NYLA Continuing Education Committee.
