

The NYLA - Dewey Scholarship

Sponsored by the Lake Placid Educational Foundation and the N Y Library Association

Description of Scholarship

The NYLA-Dewey Scholarship provides financial assistance to enable an interested and deserving student to pursue a Master's Degree in Library Science at an ALA-accredited library school in New York State.

The recipient of this award will receive $1000.00 to cover tuition costs and related expenses. In addition, the winner will receive free attendance at the first NYLA Annual Conference to be held after the awarding of the scholarship (this includes a ticket to the awards banquet).

Eligibility requirements. Applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Be a full or part-time student, or been accepted into an ALA-accredited library school or school of information science located in New York State. The winner must be matriculated in a library school by the time they receive award.
2. Students must have maintained at least a B average during the semester preceding the award and transcripts must be provided to receive payment.
3. The successful candidates are expected to work in a library or library system in New York State for at least two years upon graduation.
4. To be eligible to apply for the scholarship, both the student and the library school, must be members of the New York Library Association.

Three major factors will be considered in awarding the scholarship: a) evidence of a commitment to a career in librarianship, b) demonstrated leadership ability, and c) scholarly excellence.

Application Instructions. A complete application consists of the following items submitted together in one envelope:

1. Completed application form.
2. Professional objective essay
3. Three references on the form provided, each in a sealed envelope with the reference's signature across the envelope flap.

Application forms are to be submitted to the Dean of the Library School or Information Sciences at the ALA accredited institution you have been accepted to or are attending by September 30th. Only one NYLA Dewey Scholarship per library school will be awarded each academic year.

The Dean of the participating library schools will then nominate a student to receive the award from the applications submitted and forward their applications to NYLA by Oct 15th for confirmation by the NYLA Council. Scholarship recipients will be notified of their award by December 15th and mailed a check upon NYLA receiving official transcripts of successful completion of semester.

The following people are excluded from applying for the NYLA-Dewey Scholarship: Board members, officers, employees or relatives thereof of the New York Library Association as well as board members, officers, employees and their relatives of the Lake Placid Foundation.

Note: Applications forms are to be submitted to the Dean of the Library School or Information Sciences at the ALA accredited institution you have been accepted to or are attending by September 30th. Only one Dewey Scholarship per library school will be awarded each academic year.

Preference whenever possible should be given to applicants representing minority and diverse populations.

Scholarship and student membership forms as well as list of library schools eligible to participate are available on the NYLA website at www.nyla.org or contact the NYLA office for additional information at (800) 252-NYLA or membership@nyla.org.
