The Ethnic Services Roundtable of the New York Library Association published a list of distributors of materials in languages other than English more than a decade ago, in 2002. It offered information about those businesses in New York State that at the time worked with the New York Public Library and Queens Library. Contact information for world language vendors remains a need and the ESRT Publications Committee is offering this updated and enlarged list in conjunction with the ESRT program at the 2015 NYLA Conference – “Getting International Language Materials Your Customers Want!”

This list is nationwide and worldwide in scope and includes distributors from Queens Library’s current listing of international language vendors and the Vancouver Public Library’s “Multilingual Vendors List 2015.” Also included is information on vendors providing periodical subscriptions to Queens Library in world languages, as well as personal experiences of working with some vendors at the Finkelstein Memorial Library. Additional information has been garnered from websites. Please note that listing of a particular vendor does not constitute an endorsement, nor does the absence of a vendor from the list mean that the vendor is unsatisfactory. We hope that you find this list useful in building your world language collections. If you have any suggestions or updates regarding the list, please contact the editors: fred.j.gitner@queenslibrary.org or irinakuharets@gmail.com.
