President Emeritus
Friends of Libraries Section

Term of office: A permanent ex officio member of the FLS Executive Board

Election cycle: Appointed by acclamation of the FLS Executive Board

Note:
“An ex officio member has all the rights of membership: the right to make motions, debate, and vote. Those who are not members of the organization [clarification: not an elected member of the FLS Executive Board] are not counted in the quorum, but they still have the rights of membership.” (p. 304, Robert’s Rules of Order, Simplified and Applied ed.)

Rights and Privileges:

1. Attends Executive Board meetings as a voting member when time allows. May join in all discussions, make motions, and choose to vote on business items, excluding electronic motions made between official Executive Board meetings.

2. Participates fully in the life of the Section and Executive Board

3. Provides support to the Section Officers and members of the Executive Board as needed

Current position held by:

Appointment via motion on May 28, 2015, made by Lisa C. Wemett, FLS President 2015, and seconded by Sue Swanton: “The FLS Executive Board recognizes Randall Enos for his extensive and distinguished service to the Empire Friends Roundtable and the Friends of Libraries Section of the New York Library Association and hereby bestows upon him the title of ‘President Emeritus’ conveying all rights and privileges of his status.” The motion passed unanimously.

Reviewed by the Executive Board, 8/31/15
file: president emeritus job description