The Electric City Comic Con is proud to present the Cosplay Contest! Attendees that participate have the ability to win fantastic prizes by showing off their costumes to judges in a parade. Attendees of the con that choose not to participate in the contest can feel free to show off their costumes in the parade. Attendees should be mindful of Electric City Comic Con Cosplay Rules and Regulations (see below).

Rules and Regulations:

1. In order to be considered eligible to participate in the Electric City Cosplay Contest, contestants must register. Registration will begin when the con opens and ends shortly before judging. Registration will take place at the Comic Con table. Contestants must provide their name, contact information, and indicate which of the two divisions he/she is participating in. Winners will be announced at the end of the parade. Winners must be in attendance to claim their prizes.

2. The Electric City Comic Con has two divisions: Juvenile and Adult. The Juvenile Division is for contestants that are twelve years old and younger. The Adult Division is for contestants thirteen years old and up.

3. Electric City Comic Con requires attire appropriate to an all-ages event. Nudity and/or costumes/clothing that show a lot of skin is/are not allowed.

4. Electric City Comic Con requires that all props must be in compliance with all federal, state and local laws. No sharp-edged metal props are permitted on the premises; these include swords, knives, axes and other weapons. If an item is constructed of metal but doesn’t have an edge, it must be approved by an Electric City Comic Con staff member prior to admittance into the convention. Additionally, no firearms or projectile weapons are allowed on the premises.

5. Explosives and other such special effects are not allowed on the premises.

6. Attendees are asked to behave in a respectful manner to all attendees, guests, and vendors of Electric City Comic Con.

7. Due to the nature of the judging process, attendees may only enter one costume into competition.

8. Electric City Comic Con reserves the right to deny entry to members who do not comply with the Cosplay Contest Rules and Regulations.

9. Electric City Comic Con reserves the right to alter Electric City Cosplay Contest Rules and Regulations at any time without notice.
