4. Reports
   a. Balanced Budget Task Force – Cassie Guthrie reported that the Balanced Budget Task Force (BBTF) continues with its work as scheduled and is on pace to make its deadlines for reports to Council. The next meeting will be the week after Labor Day. Lisa Kropp asked about the members of the BBTF, given the changes in leadership. Cassie Guthrie reported that the BBTF consists of the President-Elect, Treasurer-Elect, Treasurer, and the past three (3) Treasurers. Currently, Beth Merkle, Cassie Guthrie, Tim Burke, and Kelly Harris are serving. Cassie Guthrie reached out to Claudia Depkin, Grace Riario, and Roger Reyes to see if they would like to continue their work with the task force. Roger Reyes has agreed to continue to serve; Claudia Depkin and Grace Riario had not responded by the time of the Council meeting.

b. Pathways Task Force – Tim Furgal reported that work continues with a slight adjustment to the timeline of deliverables. In May of 2021, Tim began looking into applying for IMLS applied research grant in partnership with Syracuse University to fund the work of the Task Force over a three-year period. Tim asked to delay the December 31, 2021, deadline for delivering the planned white paper and framework to Council until he hears back from IMLS regarding the grant application. Lisa Kropp spoke to the need for Council to have more information on NYLA’s involvement in IMLS grants.

c. Advocacy
i. Cassie Guthrie explained the legislative process for new Council members who might not have been part of the process before. The Director of Government Relations and the Legislative Committee work over the summer months on a recommendation that is presented to Council at the September meeting. Library Advocacy Day will be a hybrid event (virtual and in-person components) on March 2, 2022. Cassie made note that we now have the first female governor in New York, and the first governor from outside of the New York City metropolitan area in over a century: Kathy Hochul. Bri reported that Hochul appointed Brian Benjamin as Lieutenant Governor. Benjamin is from downstate and has been involved in housing and social reform in the past. Bri is excited to see how Hochul and Benjamin interact with the legislature, what their budget will be, and the content of the State of the State address. The new leadership gives NYLA an opportunity to create new talking points with a new tone and refresh the information and how we disseminate information. Hochul has already shown that she is an ally of libraries – she worked closely with the NYPL during the pandemic on at least four separate occasions. Cassie said that the Legislative Committee will have a lot more information to share at the September 16, 2021 Council meeting.

ii. Art Friedman asked about ALA’s Key Contact program. James Teliha is involved with this group and will provide an update to Council at the next meeting.
